Wow, what a busy summer it's been. And because of that, what a great season it's going to be.

I'm happy to share the news that Polar Latitudes and Albatros Expeditions have joined forces, and will begin operating under the flag of Polar Latitudes Expeditions, starting with Polar Latitudes' 2025-26 Antarctica voyages and then all combined voyages beginning with the summer 2026 Arctic season. This new partnership means we can promise more ship experiences, more cabin options, more choices of amenities and, most importantly, more itineraries and immersive experiences to our guest explorers, in both Antarctica and the Arctic.

Our combined fleet now numbers four vessels, ranging from the classic expedition-style Ocean Nova, which carries a maximum of just 80 guests, to our sleek and state-of-the-art sister ships, Ocean Albatros and Ocean Victory, and our beloved Seaventure, which boasts the highest ice rating among passenger vessels. Together, these ships have among the lowest per-passenger carbon footprint in polar waters, a critical factor in forming our alliance. And our passenger-to-expedition team ratio is among the lowest, ensuring a personal, attentive, and supremely safe experience for all.

What's not changing? Lots. Our highly trained and deeply experienced team. Our focus is on getting you off the ship and into these transformative environments as often and for as long as possible. Our commitment to the environments and communities that we so depend on. And the spirit of camaraderie and shared fun that pervades everything we do on board and off.

Every season and every polar voyage is a reason to be excited. But this season promises to be something truly special. I hope you'll join us on this great adventure.

John McKeon
Executive Chairman, Polar Latitudes Expeditions

We are all explorers

There's something about the magnificent, mysterious, and rarely tread upon polar regions that serves to awaken the inner explorer in everyone privileged enough to experience them. The massive sculptural icebergs and glaciers, the seemingly endless uninhabited landscape, the truly wild and always-captivating wildlife, and the near-complete silence that overtakes you, should you pause to allow it in. It's easy to understand why so many legendary explorers were drawn to these shores, these mountains, this magic.

Our job, as we see it, is to ignite that explorer's spirit in everyone who travels with us, from your first footsteps on board one of our expedition ships, to your final disembarkation as a newly anointed polar ambassador, ready to head back home, both exhausted and invigorated, possibly already imagining where you might explore next. In between, you can expect the most immersive experience of any polar operator – in a spirit of discovery, camaraderie, and shared fun. Our twice-daily outings, averaging 6 hours off ship, are among the longest offered by anyone. And both our highly knowledgeable team and our high ice-rated vessels make it their everyday job to seek out experiences that will distinguish your experience from all others.

Your inner explorer is calling. Take a much-deserved break from the so-called civilized world, and join us on the ultimate trip of a lifetime.

THROW OFF THE BOWLINES,
SAIL AWAY FROM SAFE HARBOR.
CATCH THE TRADE WINDS IN YOUR SAILS.
EXPLORE. DREAM. DISCOVER.

— Mark Twain

All penguins are equal – all Travel companies are not

That sounds ridiculous because it is. And therein lies the difficulty in deciding which polar travel company to trust with your bucket list holiday. Browsing through brochures or websites, the similarities are hard to miss: the sculptural icebergs, the majestic glaciers, the wild and beautiful penguins, whales and polar bears... And the truth is, those highlights will be there, regardless of who you travel with. But that doesn't mean all experiences will be the same. Here are five things that will distinguish your experience with Polar Latitudes Expeditions, should you choose to travel with us.

1: You'll travel with a principled company

While our ships take us to some unforgettable places, it's our brand beliefs that guide every decision we make. A focus on personalized attention, camaraderie, experiences above all else, and a commitment to the environment and the communities that keep us afloat – these are at the heart of our brand, and brand experience.

2: You'll be guided by an extraordinary team

Our commitment to your experience begins with our commitment to providing the most qualified and highly-trained team in polar waters. They average a dozen years' experience, and one team member for every seven-to-eight guests, ensuring the highest level of attention and safety. And though it can't be put into numbers, they simply love what they do, and sharing that love with our guests.

3: Your onboard experience will feel customized, and highly personal

We offer a range of ship experiences, from ultra-modern to classic expedition-style, providing a wide choice of cabins, features and amenities to choose from. Our ships range in size from 80 guests to 178, keeping a small ship experience (and our polar destinations) front and center at all times. Whichever ship you travel on, the level of service and attention will be second to none.

4: You'll have a more immersive adventure

Our adventure options and excursions can take you further, closer, and in some cases higher, wherever your itinerary takes you, enabling you to create a bespoke experience you'll never forget. From kayaking to camping, from hiking on foot to soaring overhead, everything we offer will bring you more intimately engaged with these incredible polar environments.

5: You'll be traveling responsibly

Like any good guest, we believe in leaving the places we visit better for us having been there. That responsibility begins with one of the industry's lowest carbon footprints, and extends to giving back to the local communities we so depend on. A pioneering Citizen Science program, local education and scholarships programs, and cultural exchange with remote Inuit communities are just some of the programs fundamental to our polar commitment.

THE GLADDEST MOMENT IN HUMAN LIFE, IS A DEPARTURE INTO UNKNOWN LANDS.

— Sir Richard Burton

A HISTORY OF EXPLORATION AND INNOVATION

Polar Latitudes Expeditions is the joining together of two industry-leading expedition companies: Polar Latitudes and Albatros Expeditions. Between us, we bring more than four decades of award-winning expedition experience to bear on your next unforgettable adventure into Antarctica or the Arctic.

Our two brands – now one – were both born of a common love for the furthest reaches of our planet, and an explorer's need to discover what awaits us there.

It's said that Søren Rasmussen, a Danish biologist with an insatiable appetite for exploration, founded Albatros Travel (which then branched into Expeditions) as a means to personally see the untamed corners of Africa and Greenland. And Polar Latitudes' founders, John McKeon and Tachen Ting, started Polar Latitudes with a decades-long love of Antarctica and a simple question: "If we were going to start the kind of company that we would want to work for and travel with, what would that company be?"

Now these two expedition companies are united, as Polar Latitudes Expeditions, bringing the very best of both to your next great polar experience, and ensuring that this "once-in-a-lifetime adventure" lives up to and even exceeds the promise of those words.

In Every Way, an Elevated Polar Experience

By combining the best learning, experience, and resources of two industry-leading operators, Polar Latitudes Expeditions offers our citizen-explorers more options, more itineraries, and more ways to ensure that this once-in-a-lifetime journey is everything you could have imagined, and then some.

Some of what you can expect from us:

- ✓ More Choice: A wider range of ships, cabins, amenities, and experiences
- ✓ More Attention: Industry-leading passenger-to-staff ratio of 7:1 – 8:1 on every voyage
- ✓ More Purpose: With our pioneering Citizen Science program
- ✓ More Engagement: Twice daily outings, averaging six hours off ship
- ✓ More Fine Dining: Elevated chef-curated dining experience and more options
- ✓ More Community: Giving back through community engagement programs and initiatives
- ✓ Less Carbon: One of the lowest overall carbon footprint-per-passenger ratios
- ✓ More Responsive: The best overall agent experienceon companies are united, as Polar Latitudes Expeditions, bringing the very best of both to your next great polar experience, and ensuring that this "once-in-a-lifetime adventure" lives up to and even exceeds the promise of those words.

A pioneering technology to both discover and protect our planet's most awe-inspiring citizens

A sudden whale sighting is bound to be a highlight of any polar voyage. But on occasion, direct whale encounters with ocean vessels can put these marvelous creatures at risk. In 2024, Polar Latitudes began teaming up with Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution to incorporate a state-of-the-art whale detection system on all our voyages. This technology helps us identify whales in our immediate area, increasing your opportunity to experience them up close, while increasing our ability to keep the Seaventure at a safe distance.

Citizen Science on every voyage

Having a Citizen Science program on every voyage is an effort we pioneered, as the very first polar operator to officially collaborate with The Polar Citizen Science Collective. We continue to team up with them on several projects, giving our passengers the chance to play a meaningful role in recording and better understanding the Arctic and Antarctic ecosystems and the impact of climate change. This is particularly helpful in the Antarctic, where we support long-term academic observation teams that would find it nearly impossible to be as ever-present on their own.

The projects offered may vary slightly by voyage and scientific need. Everyone is welcome to participate. If interested, please see the onboard daily bulletin and join the scheduled Citizen Science Introduction Meeting at the start of your voyage. There is no additional cost.

Ongoing projects

COLLECTING DATA FOR THE SOUTH GEORGIA BIG SEAWEED SEARCH

The aim of this project, led by scientists from London's Natural History Museum, is to study the seaweed diversity and distribution in South Georgia, assessing threats from climate change and invasive species.

CLOUD OBSERVATIONS FOR NASA GLOBE OBSERVER

By observing and recording cloud cover & type timed to NASA satellite fly-overs, we help scientists understand how surface and air temperature are affected by cloud cover, and how clouds respond to a changing climate.

PHYTOPLANKTON DATA FOR SCRIPPS INSTITUTION OF OCEANOGRAPHY

By collecting phytoplankton samples in fjord systems along the Antarctic Peninsula, we help scientists obtain a seasonal picture of phytoplankton abundance, composition, and distribution, as well as how phytoplankton are influenced by (increasing) melt-water inflow from glaciers.

SEABIRD SURVEYS FOR THE CORNELL LAB OF ORNITHOLOGY AND EBIRD

The project is building a long-term ecological monitoring program of seabirds in the Southern Ocean and along the Antarctic Peninsula. These recordings help researchers understand how birds use oceanic habitat, to discover new details about the lives of these remote species, and ultimately how their behavior and populations might be changing as a result of climate change.

SECCHI DISK STUDY FOR THE SECCHI DISK FOUNDATION

Measuring Secchi depth, a measure of the depth at which you lose water clarity, is another important indicator of the relative abundance of phytoplankton, critical to Antarctica's food chain. Using a Secchi Disk, our Citizen Scientists record and report findings to The Secchi Disk Foundation in the UK.

Take your photography to the next level

A professional coach for every camera and skill level

Shooting photographs in Antarctica and the Arctic is a unique privilege ... and also a unique challenge. The weather and lighting conditions can change dramatically in a matter of minutes, and an incredible opportunity can present itself at any moment. When you do capture that unexpected wildlife encounter, or the spectacular polar landscape just as the sun is setting it ablaze, you've preserved a moment on earth that few people will ever get to see — unless they're lucky enough to follow you on Instagram.

Our professional photography coaches are here to help you make the most of every photo opportunity, whether you're a fully equipped landscape photographer or someone armed only with a cellphone camera and an unlimited love of nature and beautiful imagery. From basic instruction, to the best way to shoot from a moving Zodiac, to the complexities of handling the very tricky relationship between snow, ice, and ever-shifting light, our coaches have mastered every kind of situation this environment and its inhabitants can place in your lens' path. They'll show you how to make the most of every opportunity.

Presentations and briefings will help you better understand your camera, learn a few tricks of the trade, and better master the day's unpredictable weather and environment. Your coach is with you in the field — sometimes accompanying you in a Zodiac, with you on a shore landing, or sitting at the table next to you at dinner, ready and willing to answer any question, or pass along an inside tip earned through years of experience in polar waters. Don't hesitate to ask!

At the end of each trip, passengers are invited to submit photos to our photo contest on board. Finalists are selected by our photography coach, and winners chosen by the cheers, "oohs" and "aahs" of fellow passengers at a festive event in our lounge.

The photography coach is also our trip's documentary photographer, capturing the expedition's many highlights, which are shared at an event at the end of your voyage, and given to each passenger as a valued keepsake.

More about our photography coaches.

Our coaches are experienced professionals with a wide range of specialties and skills. While their backgrounds vary, their passion for the outdoors and Antarctica in particular is a common thread they share. They are deeply knowledgeable of cameras and film equipment of every kind, and take great joy in sharing their knowledge with photographers of every level of experience.

Kayaking Programs

Getting Up Close and Personal With Your Polar Experience

To experience the polar regions in a truly intimate way, there's really no better seat than the one in your kayak, just inches above the water, navigating among icebergs and glacial ice dating back 30,000 years. Gliding through an otherworldly landscape with a small team, led by our expert guides and occasionally joined by playful wildlife, this is about as magical as it gets.

We offer 2 distinct kayaking programs on all voyages. Details below.

"WONDERFUL KAYAKING EXPERIENCE"

The kayak guides provided a wonderful, safe and informative kayaking experience. Their soothing confidence helped me really relax and enjoy the ride.

— Anna F.

"KAYAKING WAS MAGICAL"

The kayaking experience was magical. Being eye level with the whales and ice was truly breathtaking.

— Lisa F.

Immersive Kayaking

LIMIT 10 PARTICIPANTS

This program is designed for those more experienced guests who want to kayak as much as possible during their voyage. Immersive Kayaking is limited to 10 participants, with a dedicated kayak guide and safety Zodiac. Immersive paddlers will have the opportunity to kayak during most excursions and landings, weather and conditions permitting.

Advanced booking is highly recommended and requires a 20% deposit

* Because the number of kayaking opportunities will vary by voyage and ship, we are setting the pre-booking availability for Discover Kayaking very conservatively. Another reason to book early! Additional spots may become available on board, offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

THE DETAILS:

Anyone 14 or older, in reasonably good health and with even a small amount of paddling experience is welcome to join.

Prior to your first kayaking adventure, our guides will do a thorough job of handing out and explaining all your gear, as well as the basic rules of operating an ocean kayak.

Typical excursions last anywhere from 1-3 hours.

Discover Kayaking

PARTICIPANT LIMIT VARIES BY VOYAGE*

This program is designed for those guests who just want a taste of the Polar kayaking experience. Each participant kayaks once per voyage in a group of 14 with a dedicated guide team and safety Zodiac. Total number of available kayaking spots on each departure will vary by itinerary length and weather, but we aim to get groups on the water at every opportunity.

WE PROVIDE:

High Density Polyethylene (HDPE) tandem (two-man) kayaks with paddles, dry suits, personal floatation devices (PFDs), and pogies (neoprene gloves.)

YOU PROVIDE:

Guests pre-booked on both of our kayak programs should read and follow the detailed preparation notes sent prior to departure. Make sure to bring warm layers and a keen sense of adventure!

You can find a complete FAQ at polar-latitudes.com/kayaking-programs

Camping (exclusive to Antarctica)

After a full day and delicious dinner onboard, jump back in the Zodiacs and head ashore for a night of camping in Antarctica! Enjoy the sounds of the waves and brash ice on the beach, the creaking of the glaciers, maybe even the blow of a passing whale. Warm and cozy in your bivy sack under the midnight sun, you will be breathing the cleanest air in the most beautiful place on the planet.

Who can participate?

Guests aged 12 and older with an adventurous spirit and a willingness to rough-it for a night. Sleeping on the ice in Antarctica is the ultimate camping experience!

How often will we camp?

Camping is limited to one night per voyage and is available on Peninsula and Circle Crossing voyages.

Is there a participant limit?

Participant limit varies by ship. Sign up early — the camping option frequently sells out.

What do passengers need to supply?

A sense of adventure is all you need.

"POLAR LATITUDES WAS ABSOLUTELY THE BEST TOUR COMPANY WE COULD HAVE PICKED FOR OUR ANTARCTICA JOURNEY!"

Camping and the polar plunge were 2 of the biggest highlights of the trip for me! Not every company offers camping and this was one of the reasons I picked Polar Latitudes.

— Jackie S.

For detailed rate and date information on all activities please see page 62.
Note: Space on Adventure Options is limited, and typically sells out prior to departure.

We double-dog dare you

One of the definite highlights of every voyage is the Polar Plunge, a chance for all our adventurous, thrill seeking, and just plain crazy passengers to strike a pose while hurtling into the frigid Antarctic waters... if only for a few seconds. You might call it "the ultimate immersive polar experience." Trust us, it's more fun than it looks.

A professional-grade expedition jacket, and a down-filled mid-layer for you to keep

Our time-tested expedition jackets, yours to use throughout the trip, are custom-designed with Antarctica in mind. They're lightweight, waterproof, and wind-resistant. They hug the body, are both warm and breathable, and feature a high collar and generous overall length that will keep the chill and sea mist from ever sneaking up on you. We added plenty of sturdy loops to secure gloves, a water bottle, or a GoPro, ensuring that nothing goes overboard. Waterproof inside pockets will keep your personal items dry and safe at all times.

With you on every future journey: An exclusively designed down jacket, named for our founder.

In addition to our loaner expedition jacket, you'll receive our black MCKEON down jacket, named for our founder John McKeon, and created exclusively for us by Shackleton London. This versatile, lightweight jacket combines high functionality and everyday stylishness and is yours to keep, providing exceptional service for years – if not decades – to come, wherever your exploration may take you.

Gearing up for the last wild places on earth

An obvious (and totally warranted) question when traveling to a place as wild, unpopulated, and remote as Antarctica is, "What do I need to pack?" It's true that the Arctic and Antarctica are cold, and the weather can be unpredictable, but the ships are very comfy, and a few key articles of clothing will do the trick to fight off the elements when out and exploring – not unlike what you might pack for a ski vacation, with a few additional suggestions. We supply the expedition jacket and muck boots you'll need on every outing, plus our custom-designed MCKEON down-filled jacket (named for our founder and yours to keep!), which makes a great mid-layer; but other important items to pack are:

- Waterproof ski-type pants (essential)
- Base layers, for both your legs and upper body (also essential)
- In addition to our MCKEON down jacket, a good wool sweater or additional body-hugging mid-layer is always good to have on hand
- Heavy long socks, thick waterproof gloves and a good warm hat (no surprise there)
- Polarized sunglasses (a must)
- Sunscreen (yes, it's cold, but the sun can be surprisingly strong)
- Balaclava or other face-covering (a good idea, for when the wind picks up)
- A bathing suit – for the polar plunge (Oh, yes you will!)
- Casual comfortable gear for on board. You can leave the tux at home, we're pretty informal on the ship
- Workout gear, if you intend to hit the onboard gym
- A dry bag, or other waterproof bag to protect your phone and camera gear when in a zodiac or on shore
- Photographers – download our detailed photography guide (see page 12) for more advice and pro tips

No need to stress. Should you book with us, we'll give you a much more detailed packing list, along with all the other details you'll need to know before you step on a plane, and eventually on our ship.

A close-up, underwater photograph of a seal's head and upper body. The seal is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. Its dark, textured fur is visible, and its whiskers are clearly defined. The background is a bright, turquoise-colored water, with sunlight filtering down from the surface. In the distance, a school of small, white fish is swimming. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.

DON'T TAKE LIFE TOO SERIOUSLY.
YOU WILL NEVER GET OUT OF IT ALIVE.

Our fleet: Explorer-friendly and Polar-sensitive

The Polar Latitudes Expedition fleet now includes the Seaventure, Ocean Albatros, Ocean Victory, and Ocean Nova. While the ships differ in many ways (giving you more options, from rooms to amenities), they all share a number of features – first and foremost, prioritizing your Polar engagement above all else. All four ships offer a decidedly small ship experience, with never more than 180 passengers on board. This means quick, safe Zodiac boarding, personalized attention from our expedition and photography teams, and feeling like you're part of a team, not just another face in the passenger crowd. Our ships are purpose-built for the polar regions, with exceptionally high ice ratings that enable safe access to places that would simply say "no" to lesser ships. They are designed to keep the spectacular outside environment in clear view at all times, with multiple outdoor decks and 180 views in our presentation rooms. And collectively, our fleet is one of the most fuel-efficient in the industry, just one of the many ways we "walk the talk" of caring for these fragile environments.

All voyages include:

- ✓ Beer, wine, and Non-Alcoholic Beverages with meals
- ✓ Certified Emergency MD and Clinic
- ✓ World Class Cuisine and Live Entertainment
- ✓ Complimentary 24-hr Coffee/Tea station
- ✓ Voyage Photographer/Coach

Seaventure: a small but mighty ship

The MS Seaventure was custom-built for both the challenges and opportunities that only Antarctica can offer. Its size is formidable enough to deliver a supreme level of comfort and safety even in challenging seas, yet it's small enough to provide a superior level of personalized service, casual luxury, and flawless access to all things polar. Its state-of-the-art stabilizing system provides safe, comfortable passage through even rough seas, and its ice rating is second-to-none in these waters, offering you access to places that would turn away many other ships.

Seaventure features an outer viewing deck that circles the entire ship, and an outdoor dining area and heliport where we host events whenever weather permits. Indoors, our elegant dining areas and spacious presentation room surround you with oversized windows, so you'll never have to miss a passing iceberg or an impromptu sighting of a Humpback or school of Orcas.

Over time, the volcanic activity of the South Shetland Islands has created a geology unlike any other. Here, you can expect a rugged display of mountains, glaciers, and wildlife returning to their busy daily activity after the long winter break. Chinstrap and Gentoo penguins will be a common sight, and it's not uncommon to share the water's edge with Elephant and Fur seals. Whales are often spotted as well. So, we'll settle into our Zodiacs and spend most of our day exploring, perhaps stopping for a walk along the black sands of Deception Island. Whether on land or sea, in a Zodiac or kayak, be prepared for a fully immersive introduction to this incomparable part of the world.

At day's end, take in the miraculous sunsets that are a special treat this time of year. Visits to active scientific bases and historic landing sites may also be on the agenda.

Days 8–9, Drake Passage

We leave this magical place and make our way north, once again crossing the legendary Drake Passage. We have one last hurrah as we celebrate the conclusion of our expedition with a special slideshow, passenger photo contest, and a final celebratory meal together. Congratulations, explorers!

Day 10, Ushuaia disembarkation

But this voyage will feature one notable (and very large) addition to the spectacle: This time of year, whale spotting is at its entertaining best, with large numbers of giant Humpbacks feeding on the abundance of krill in the water. Orcas and Minke are also common sightings on this very special voyage into the last truly wild place on Earth.

We'll raise a glass of bubbly to celebrate the achievement, before heading onward toward any number of historic and rarely visited British Survey bases, after which we turn back north.

Day 10, South Shetland Islands

Weather permitting, we'll explore the eerie landscape of Deception Island, an active volcanic crater with black steaming sands and rusting ruins, and immerse ourselves in the history of Yankee Harbour, once a vital anchorage for sealers.

Days 11-12, Drake Passage

We leave this magical place and make our way north, once again crossing the legendary Drake Passage. We have one last hurrah as we celebrate the conclusion of our expedition with a special slideshow, passenger photo contest, and a final celebratory meal together. Congratulations, explorers!

Day 1, All aboard in Longyearbyen!

Begin your journey in Norway and arrive in Longyearbyen, Svalbard—the northernmost town on Earth. Despite its remote Arctic location, Longyearbyen offers warm Nordic hospitality. Upon arrival, you're greeted by crisp polar air, dramatic mountain views, and a polar bear warning sign reminding visitors of their wild new location. Your expedition ship Ocean Albatros awaits you in the harbour; toast your departure from civilization as you sail into the Arctic wilderness, on course for adventure!

Days 2, Northwest Svalbard

Northwest Svalbard, a National Park since 1973, preserves a rich history of early Arctic exploration and whaling. First visited by William Barents in 1596, the area became a hub for Dutch and English whalers. Their haunting remnants, such as the blubber ovens, and graves of young sailors at Smeerensburg, remain visible. Now heavily protected, the region has been reclaimed by nature, hosting Arctic flowers, seabirds, walrus, and polar bears, making it once again a pristine wilderness and haven for wildlife.

Day 3, Northeast Svalbard

In the morning, the expedition enters the icy wilderness of northeastern Svalbard, a stark polar desert shaped by the absence of warming ocean currents. Here, vast glaciers descend into ice-choked waters, surrounding rugged landscapes which appear barren but teem with life. Arctic foxes prowl the chilly shores, while hundreds of thousands of seabirds nest on cliffs above. The cold coastal waters are rich in shellfish, attracting the walrus, which are common in the area. Our exploration plans depend on rapidly changing sea, wind, and ice conditions, embodying the dynamic and unpredictable essence of true polar adventure.

Day 4, North Svalbard

Next, we strive for some of the northernmost pieces of land on Earth - stark landscapes almost permanently beset by ice. With luck, we may reach the polar desert island of Nordaustlandet, or the smaller islands of Sjuøyane in the far north of Svalbard. The almost vegetation-free, rocky islands are located around 1000 km further north than mainland Norway's famous Nordkapp. Weather permitting, we will land and walk upon these most northern landmasses. The high Arctic islands are quite barren, and only moss and lichens cover the stones. The birdlife is rich in this area, with flocks of grazing geese and nesting terns and skuas - keep your binoculars handy! At the end of the day, we will start cruising towards the Arctic ice pack which stretches from Svalbard to the North Pole and beyond.

Days 5, Into the Ice

The Arctic ice pack north of Svalbard is a vast, ever-changing wilderness stretching to the North Pole and beyond to Alaska and Siberia, forming one of Earth's largest and most dynamic habitats. Though it appears barren at first, this icy realm conceals abundant wildlife—from tiny cod-like fish and seabirds to seals, belugas, bowhead whales, and the elusive polar bear, the region's apex predator. As Ocean Albatros navigates narrow ice channels, the expedition offers a rare glimpse into this mysterious, shifting environment where nature's secrets unfold with patience and care.

Day 6, Kongsfjorden area

During the Arctic "night," we sail into the stunning Kongsfjord, a vast fjord system framed by glaciers and the dramatic Three Crowns mountains. Here we will visit Ny-Ålesund, Earth's northernmost settlement, known for its scientific stations and historic role as a base for legendary polar explorers like Amundsen and Nansen. This remote outpost continues to support vital research amid its breathtaking surroundings, blending the frontiers of science and exploration.

Day 7, Longyearbyen disembarkation

On the final morning of our expedition, we arrive back in Longyearbyen. Even this small town will feel like a metropolis after days of isolation in the wilderness of the Arctic!

After exploring Longyearbyen and bidding a fond farewell to the crew and fellow Arctic explorers, return to Svalbard Airport and join your flight back to the Norwegian mainland- with memories to last a lifetime.

Day 1, All aboard in Kangerlussuaq!!

On day one, we arrive in Kangerlussuaq, Greenland's only inland town and a key air hub with a rich Cold War history. Upon arrival, we transfer by Zodiac to the Ocean Albatros, settle into our cabins, complete a safety drill, and then toast with champagne as we begin our journey through the stunning Kangerlussuaq fjord.

Day 2, Sisimiut – Greenland's second city

Sisimiut is Greenland's second-largest city, with around 5,400 residents. Inhabited since 2,500 BC by Paleo-Inuit peoples, the area holds ancient remains on nearby Tele Island, which can be reached on a refreshing hike. Founded as Holsteinsborg in 1756, Sisimiut features well-preserved historic buildings like the Blue Church from 1775, situated in the city's charming museum quarter. Today, Sisimiut is a key hub for education and industry, hosting one of Greenland's largest fish processing plants and the supply company KNI, which services remote settlements. The city blends traditional and modern Arctic life—explore the cultural center Taserlik, the city museum, and the famous art workshop, and taste Greenlandic delicacies.

Day 3, Qeqertarsuaq (Disko Island)

Qeqertarsuaq is a picturesque town nestled beneath Disko Island's towering basalt mountains. Once the heart of North Greenland's whaling economy, the town shifted focus to hunting, fishing, and growing tourism after the industry declined. Qeqertarsuaq's rich volcanic soil and mild microclimate create uncommonly lush greenery, attracting locals and visitors to its rugged beauty, colorful houses and excellent hiking. In the afternoon, we'll explore the dramatic coastline of nearby Kuannit by Zodiac, famed for lush tundra, caves, waterfalls, and stunning icebergs, before heading deeper into the heart of Disko Bay.

Day 4, Eqip Sermia Glacier

Eqip Sermia (a descriptive Greenlandic name meaning 'the Glacier at the End of the Fjord') is a relatively small glacier for Greenland, although it is still a truly vast river of ice, flowing directly from the Ice Sheet. It is also one of the most active, and ice constantly tumbles off the vast glacier-front. If conditions allow, we will launch our fleet of Zodiacs to approach this vast river of ice, and hopefully experience the roar of the glacier's frequent calvings at sea level (from a safe distance of course)!!

Days 5, Ilulissat, iceberg capital of the world

Ilulissat—meaning “icebergs” in Kalaallisut—is the stunning Iceberg Capital of the World, home to the UNESCO-listed Ilulissat Icefjord, accessible on a gentle walk from the harbor. This 70 km fjord leads to Sermeq Kujalleq, the largest glacier outside Antarctica, which drains 13% of the Greenland Ice Sheet and produces 10% of the Northern Hemisphere’s icebergs—more than the entire U.S. annual water supply! Founded 280 years ago and the birthplace of legendary Arctic explorer Knud Rasmussen, Ilulissat is Greenland’s third largest town, rich in culture and adventure. Enjoy fresh local seafood, vibrant markets, and elegant art galleries. The hiking trails around the Icefjord are a must-do for visitors, who may also choose thrilling optional boat or flightseeing tours to witness the raw power of the ice up close.

Day 6, Itilleq Village

Itilleq – meaning “the Crossing Place from the Sea” – is a picturesque village nestled among mountains and fjords just north of the Arctic Circle. Located at the edge of the Aassivisuit-Nipisat UNESCO World Heritage Site, it preserves a rich Inuit hunting heritage dating back thousands of years. Modern colorful houses have replaced turf huts, but locals still rely on Arctic char, reindeer, and muskox, blending tradition with modern life. Warm Greenlandic hospitality welcomes visitors eager to explore this wonderfully homely hamlet.

Day 7, Kangerlussuaq disembarkation

As our journey concludes, we sail up the 160 km Kangerlussuaq Fjord and disembark by Zodiac after a fond farewell to the Expedition Team and Crew of Ocean Albatros. Though Kangerlussuaq is more known for its Cold War-era military roots and role as a transport hub than its cultural heritage, its surrounding wilderness offers striking natural beauty. Originally built by the U.S. military in the 1950s, the town retains a utilitarian charm. Our Arctic adventure ends at the modern airport, with lasting memories of Greenland’s wild landscapes.

Day 1, All aboard in Dublin!!

Our expedition begins in Dublin, the beating heart of Ireland. Hosting sites such as the famous Ha'penny Bridge and the spellbinding Book of Kells in Trinity College, the magnificent St Patrick's Cathedral and the legendary Guinness Storehouse, visitors are spoiled for choice in the Irish capital. In the afternoon, settle into your cabin aboard Ocean Victory and toast your departure into the Irish Sea as we set a course for Antrim.

Day 2, Portrush, Antrim Coast

Sitting on the island's northern coast, Portrush is one of Ireland's premier seaside resort towns, sitting on the breath-taking Antrim Coast. Bizarre geological happenstance has created this spectacular coastline, home to landmarks such as Dunluce Castle (made famous by hit show Game of Thrones) and the storied stones of the Giant's Causeway, indisputably the most famous geological site on the island of Ireland. In the afternoon, we will visit nearby Rathlin Island, home to some of Ireland's largest seabird colonies.

Day 3, Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Easily one of Britain's most picturesque towns, Tobermory is the 'capital' of the Isle of Mull and positively oozes Scottishness, from the Tobermory Distillery on the harbourfront to the golden eagles which frequent the crags above town. Colourful buildings line the harbour, a mix of cosy cafes, welcoming pubs and boutique galleries selling gorgeous local artworks. Situated between the Sound of Mull and the island's rugged interior, Tobermory is the ideal jumping-off point to explore this island gem.

Day 4, St Kilda

Britain's remotest archipelago, St Kilda is Britain's only dual UNESCO World Heritage Site, inscribed for both its human and natural wonders. We drop anchor in the bay overlooking the Village – a unique settlement often compared to Macchu Picchu, entirely built from stone by the islanders who once called this island home. Windswept, rugged and difficult to farm, the locals of St Kilda left for less difficult lands in 1930, leaving the island to the vast colonies of seabirds and tiny ancient Soay sheep which were once the islanders' main source of food.

Days 5, Kirkwall, Orkney

The capital and largest town of the Orkney Islands, Kirkwall's narrow streets beckon visitors to explore the town's deep Scottish and Norse heritage. Highlights include the magnificent St Magnus Cathedral and the Highland Park distillery – Scotland’s northernmost whisky producer. However the islands’ history stretches back much further to the Neolithic. Sites such as Skara Brae and the Ring of Brodgar are among the best preserved on Earth, bearing witness to 5,000 years of history; these are inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site – the Neolithic Heart of Orkney.

Day 6, Invergordon

Sitting in the calm Firth of Cromarty, Invergordon is a port town serving the North Sea oil industry and the nearby city of Inverness. The area is synonymous with the famous nearby Loch Ness, and of course its legendary monster. Make sure to bring your binoculars for a day of exploring these mythical lands!

Day 7, Aberdeen, Scotland disembarkation

On the final day of our expedition, Ocean Victory arrives in the heart of the Granite City. After a fond farewell to the Officers and Crew, step onto the granite stones of Scotland’s most important port city, the ideal place to head back home with treasured Scottish memories, or as a jumping off point to explore the wonders of the Scottish Highlands.

The best food in the city is indisputably found at the English Market, where some of Ireland's best produce is sold and prepared -an absolute treat for any foodie!

Day 3, Knightstown and the Skelligs

Join a hike to the nearby Valentia Island Lighthouse, or journey back through time and see the tetrapod footprints – a palaeontological marvel. Days 5, Kilronan, Aran Islands, and Clare Island

In the afternoon we sail to Clare Island, once home to legendary pirate queen Gráinne O'Malley – thankfully, the welcome here is considerably warmer today than in her time!

Northwest Svalbard, a National Park since 1973, preserves a rich history of early Arctic exploration and whaling. First visited by William Barents in 1596, the area became a hub for Dutch and English whalers. Their haunting remnants, such as the blubber ovens, and graves of young sailors at Smeerenburg, remain visible. Located at the edge of the Aassivisuit-Nipisat UNESCO World Heritage Site, it preserves a rich Inuit hunting heritage dating back thousands of years. Modern colourful houses have replaced turf huts, but locals still rely on Arctic char, reindeer, and muskox, blending tradition with modern life. Warm Greenlandic hospitality welcomes visitors eager to explore this wonderfully homely hamlet.

Day 8, Kangerlussuaq disembarkation

As our journey concludes, we sail up the 160 km Kangerlussuaq Fjord and disembark by Zodiac after a fond farewell to the Expedition Team and Crew of Ocean Albatros. Though Kangerlussuaq is more known for its Cold War-era military roots and role as a transport hub than its cultural heritage, its surrounding wilderness offers striking natural beauty. Originally built by the U.S. military in the 1950s, the town retains a utilitarian charm. Our Arctic adventure ends at the modern airport, with lasting memories of Greenland’s wild landscapes and rich culture.

8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS ON BOARD

REYKJAVIK TO REYKJAVIK

Experience the best of Iceland on an 8-day circumnavigation of the land of ice and fire! Iceland has captivated explorers for over a thousand years, ever since Norse pioneers set foot on this storied land. Iceland is famed for its dramatic mix of fire and ice — towering volcanoes, vast glaciers, and frigid coastlines. But beyond these extremes lies a land of vibrant coastal towns, rich wildlife, and entrancing cultural experiences. This expedition begins in Reykjavík, Iceland's lively capital, before heading to Ísafjörður, capital of the Westfjords. From there, we visit Siglufjörður, once Iceland's herring capital, and continue to Grímsey Island, where visitors can stand on the Arctic Circle. Further along the north coast lies Akureyri, Iceland's second-largest settlement, nestled among green hills and wild landscapes. We then explore Húsavík, world-famous for whale watching. On Iceland's remote east coast, the charming town of Djúpivogur offers historic character, surreal black sand beaches, and breathtaking bird life. Our voyage then sails south to Heimaey, part of the volcanic Westman Islands, where islanders' heroically fought a volcano to save their home, before returning to Reykjavík. Travelling in early autumn allows us to avoid peak crowds, explore remote communities, and witness the northern lights as the Arctic winter approaches.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience singing herring culture in historic Siglufjörður
- Immerse yourself in culture in Iceland's vibrant second city of Akureyri
- Stand on the Arctic Circle on remote Grímsey

Day 1, Reykjavík, Iceland – Embarkation

Our adventure begins in Iceland's vibrant capital, Reykjavík. Famous for its modern Nordic culture, excellent food scene, and relaxed atmosphere, Reykjavík is the ideal starting point for our Arctic adventure. After boarding our expedition ship, Ocean Albatros, guests will enjoy dinner and champagne as we set sail out of Faxaflói Bay, following ancient Norse sea routes towards the wild Westfjords.

Day 2, Ísafjörður

Tucked in the heart of the Westfjords, Ísafjörður is surrounded by dramatic basalt mountains and deep fjords. Once a quiet fishing settlement, it became an international trade hub in the 16th century, with its rich waters attracting traders and ships from across the Atlantic. Today, the colourful houses, swanky downtown buildings, and visitors from around the world make a surprisingly cosmopolitan town centre. Chilly breezes and sweeping landscapes welcome visitors to explore the remoteness and beauty of this northern gem.

Day 3, Siglufjörður and Grímsey

Siglufjörður, Iceland's northernmost mainland town, thrived during the herring boom of the mid-20th century, growing from a sleepy village to the hub of the country's fishing industry. Today, the herring still reigns supreme; the charming streets and Herring Era Museum showcase this proud heritage, while its jaw-dropping fjord setting offers rich bird-watching opportunities. Later, we sail to Grímsey Island, the only part of Iceland that crosses the Arctic Circle. A guided walk reveals its rugged beauty, curious, unafraid seabirds, and the symbolic Arctic Circle marker, 'Orbus et Globus', which is shifted annually to account for tiny changes to Earth's orbit.

Day 4, Akureyri

Nestled at the end of Eyjafjörður, Iceland's longest fjord, Akureyri is known as the "Capital of the North." Despite its small size, the city boasts a unique cathedral, the first botanical gardens in Iceland, massive geothermally-heated swimming pools, and a lively cultural scene. Sheltered by surrounding hills from the worst of the Arctic weather, its rich volcanic soils support abundant agriculture, and the frigid waters of the fjord hold rich fish stocks – a treat for the discerning palate!

Day 5, Húsavík

Just beyond Akureyri lies Húsavík, Iceland's oldest settlement, founded by the Viking pioneer Náttfari in the late 9th century. Small but bustling, Húsavík has fully embraced tourism and is the undisputed whale-watching capital of Iceland. Where whalers once hunted, conservation and tourism now shelter these gentle giants. The town also offers museums, including one dedicated to whale conservation and research and another celebrating Iceland's contributions to exploration, in the Arctic, Antarctic, and even into space. No trip to Husavik is complete without a soak at the nearby Geosea Spa with views over Skjálfandi Bay.

Day 6, Djúpivogur

Situated on Iceland's scenic southeast coast, Djúpivogur is framed by fjords, mountains, and rich bird habitats. It is the closest port in the country to the Faroe Islands, Scandinavia, and mainland Europe, and is therefore a very popular port of call for vessels exploring the North Atlantic. Centered around the harbor, the town dates back to the 16th century and is known for its unique public art, including the Eggin í Gleðivík (Eggs of Merry Bay) sculpture. Hikers and birdwatchers are spoiled for choice, with mile upon mile of nature waiting to be explored. One of Iceland's most beautiful black sand beaches is just a short stroll from town and features a huge variety of bird species.

Day 7, Heimaey and Surtsey, Westman Island

Next we visit Heimaey, the largest of the volcanic Westman Islands. Visitors can explore the dramatic lava fields of Eldfell volcano, and the world-renowned bird colonies of the island. The residents of Heimaey were severely tested in 1973, when Eldfell volcano began to spew lava, threatening the town and its vital harbour. Heroic locals fought back, cooling the lava with seawater jets to save their community. Weather permitting, we cruise past Surtsey, a newly formed volcanic island strictly reserved for scientific research.

Day 8, Reykjavík – Disembarkation

Returning to Reykjavík, we conclude our voyage with lasting memories of Iceland's wild landscapes, vibrant communities, and extraordinary wildlife.

Day 1, All aboard in Reykjavik!

Hallgrímskirkja Church towers over Reykjavík, a vibrant city known for Nordic cuisine, unique museums, and lively shopping. After safety briefings, we set sail toward East Greenland.

Day 2, At sea, crossing the Denmark Strait

The Denmark Strait, a narrow passage between Iceland and Greenland, teems with rich marine life. Our onboard experts guide guests in safely viewing the eclipse. Nearing Greenland, the team shares insights on ecology, geology, and wildlife, preparing guests for Zodiac operations and polar bear safety.

Days 3–5, Northeast Greenland National Park

As the ship sails past the rugged Liverpool Land peninsula, we enter the vast Northeast Greenland National Park — the world's largest protected land area, spanning nearly a million square kilometers and encompassing the northernmost land on Earth. Uninhabited today, the region was once home to nomadic Inuit hunters who thrived off its natural abundance until the mid-19th century.

Due to the extreme remoteness and unpredictable Arctic conditions, the itinerary within the park is flexible and dictated by weather, wind, sea, and ice. The Captain and Expedition Leader determine daily plans, which are announced the evening before. Potential highlights include Ella Island's dramatic 1300-meter cliffs at Bastionen, the historically significant Maria Island — site of a German WWII camp — and Blomsterbugten on Ymer Island, where visitors may enjoy views of the striking Teufelsschloss mountain and its vivid geological layers. Other possible destinations include the calving Waltershausen Glacier, the magnificent Moskusokse Fjord, and the wildlife hotspots of Jameson Land.

Throughout our time in the Park, your Expedition Team provides engaging lectures, friendly discussions, and onshore insights, while always scanning the landscape for Arctic wildlife. In this remote and pristine wilderness, guests are promised a journey rich in natural beauty, discovery, and adventure.

Day 6, Expedition Scoresbysund

Venturing deep into the maze of fjords and islands that comprise Scoresbysund, it is easy to see why this region is spoken of with awe by even experienced explorers! The exact locations we visit in Scoresbysund will be dictated by Mother Nature – this far north, all human activity is subject to wind, sea, and ice conditions. Options include the Bjørne Islands, a labyrinth of skerries which trap vast icebergs in their rocky net, the sweeping basalt mountains of Cape Brewster, and the abandoned remains of European and Inuit settlements. Wherever we visit in the depths of Scoresbysund, adventure is guaranteed!

Day 7, Eclipse Day

On Eclipse Day, Ocean Victory approaches the heart of Scoresbysund as the heavens begin to align. The moon begins to drift over the sun at 16:37 as the partial eclipse begins, building to totality at 17:37, with darkness settling over the landscape. Witness the stunning "Diamond Ring" effect at 17:40 as totality ends. The eclipse concludes by 18:33 as the moon's shadow moves northward towards the Arctic Ocean. After this unforgettable spectacle, guests return to the ship for a gala dinner.

Day 8, Ittoqqortoormiit

The only settlement in this region, Ittoqqortoormiit is among the most remote communities on Earth. While the establishment of the town by Danish authorities in 1925 was challenging, residents continue a subsistence hunting lifestyle, essential when supply ships arrive only once or twice per year. Ittoqqortoormiit is a town with a strong sense of community and traditional culture, hosting an excellent museum, a beautiful traditional church, and locals often welcome visitors wearing colourful traditional costumes. Ittoqqortoormiit is the perfect introduction to the culture and lifestyle of Greenland. .

Day 9, At sea, en route to Reykjavik

During our time at sea approaching Reykjavik, relax and reflect on your thrilling Arctic adventure. Attend final lectures from the Expedition Team, relive your adventure at the voyage slideshow, and celebrate your voyage with new friends at the Captain's Farewell Cocktail Party.

Day 10, Reykjavik disembarkation

As our journey concludes, we sail up the 160 km Kangerlussuaq Fjord and disembark by Zodiac. Though Kangerlussuaq is more known for its Cold War-era military roots and role as a transport hub than cultural heritage, its surrounding wilderness offers striking natural beauty.

Jul 7, 2026	Jul 16, 2026

Day 1, All aboard in Longyearbyen!

Begin your journey in Norway and arrive in Longyearbyen, Svalbard—the northernmost town on Earth. Despite its remote Arctic location, Longyearbyen offers warm Nordic hospitality. Upon arrival, you're greeted by crisp polar air, dramatic mountain views, and a polar bear warning sign reminding visitors of their wild new location. Your expedition ship Ocean Albatros awaits you in the harbor; toast your departure from civilization as you sail into the Arctic wilderness, on course for adventure!

Day 2, Kongsfjorden Region, Northwest Svalbard

During the Arctic "night," we sail past Prins Karls Forland to the stunning Kongsfjord, framed by glaciers and the dramatic Three Crowns mountains. The first stop is Ny-Ålesund, Earth's northernmost settlement, known for its scientific stations and historic role as a base for legendary polar explorers like Amundsen and Nansen. This remote outpost continues to support vital research amid its breathtaking surroundings.

Day 3, Northwest Svalbard

North West Svalbard, a National Park since 1973, preserves a rich history of early Arctic exploration and whaling. First visited by William Barents in 1596, the area became a hub for Dutch and English whalers. Their haunting remnants, such as the blubber ovens, and graves of young sailors at Smeerenburg, remain visible. Now heavily protected, the region has been reclaimed by nature, hosting Arctic flowers, seabirds, walrus, and polar bears, making it once again a pristine wilderness and haven for wildlife.

Day 4, Into the Ice

The Arctic ice pack north of Svalbard is a vast, ever-changing wilderness, shifting seasonally and stretching beyond the North Pole to Alaska and Siberia. Though seemingly barren, this icy habitat supports diverse wildlife, from fish and seabirds, to seals, belugas, and bowhead whales, and is the preferred hunting ground of polar bears. The Ocean Albatros navigates through ice channels to explore this remote environment, hunting for wildlife, ending the day cruising toward the Hinlopen Strait between the islands of Spitsbergen and Nordaustlandet.

Day 5, Northeast Svalbard

From the Arctic ice, the journey continues into Hinlopen Strait, where towering cliffs host some of the world's largest seabird colonies, crowded with guillemots and fulmars amid predatory skuas and gulls. The unearthly polar deserts of northeast Svalbard are surrounded by iceberg-studded seas, where vibrant marine life thrives. Walruses rest on beaches, belugas frolic in pods, and baleen whales feast offshore, showcasing Svalbard's rich biodiversity despite the harsh Arctic conditions.

Day 6, East Svalbard

In Eastern Svalbard, cold polar waters meet the weak last gasp of the Gulf Stream, and the ocean remains icy even under the midnight sun. On Edgeøya, evidence of past large-scale walrus and beluga hunting contrasts with today's strict wildlife protections and extensive nature reserves. Highlights we may visit include the geological marvels and walrus colonies at Andrætangen and Kapp Lee, or the vast bird colonies at Sundneset, before we return toward the main island of Spitzbergen via Sørkapp.

Days 7-8, South Svalbard

After rounding the southern tip of Spitsbergen, the expedition enters the greener, warmer fjords of Bellsund and Hornsund, nourished by Atlantic currents. These fertile valleys support reindeer, Arctic foxes, nesting seabirds, and drifting icebergs from nearby glaciers. Rich in wildlife and history, the area offers highlights like Alkhjornet's bird cliffs and the historic sites of Calypsobyen and Bamsebu, making it one of Svalbard's most diverse and captivating regions.

Day 9, West/Central Spitzbergen

During the night we will enter Forlandssundet, the strait which separates Prince Karls Forland from Spitsbergen. Our destinations may include Poolepynten (Poole Point), a small headland named after the British whaler Jonas Poole. Today the area is inhabited by herds of walruses who can be seen (and smelled!) from a distance. The large mammals flaunt their tusks and whiskers, as well as their considerable bulk. The remote beaches, rugged mountains, and tundra plains of the region positively beg to be explored! From Forlandsundet, we will return southwards during the afternoon into Isfjorden, all the while on the lookout for wildlife and spectacular views as we return to civilization.

Day 10, Longyearbyen disembarkation

On the final morning of our expedition, we arrive back in Longyearbyen. Even this small town will feel like a metropolis after days of isolation in the wilderness of the Arctic!

After exploring Longyearbyen and biddin a fond farewell to the crew and fellow Arctic explorers, return to Svalbard Airport and join your flight back to the Norwegian mainland- with memories to last a lifetime.

Next, venture off the map to lonely St Kilda, Britain's most remote archipelago and only dual UNESCO World Heritage Site, before spending two days in the ruggedly beautiful and rarely-visited Faroe Islands. Day 1, All aboard in Troon!

Ocean Victory awaits our guests in the quaint harbour town of Troon, overlooking the sheltered waters of the Firth of Clyde. After the mandatory safety briefings and drill, settle into your stateroom and toast your departure with an expertly crafted cocktail as Ocean Victory sets a course for the Inner Hebrides.

Day 2, Iona and Lunga

Early on the third day of our expedition, Ocean Victory will drop anchor off the sacred Isle of Iona. It was here in 563AD that St Columba established Iona Abbey – bringing Christianity to Scotland. Still a site of pilgrimage, Iona Abbey may not be the largest, but is certainly one of Scotland's most holy and historic places. In the Afternoon, Ocean Victory will reposition to the Isle of Lunga, a natural paradise brimming with nesting puffins and other seabirds.

Day 3, Stornoway, Isle of Lewis

The capital of the Western Isles, Stornoway is the largest town on the Isle of Lewis. The Western Isles are the heartland of the Scottish Gàidhealtachd – and Stornoway is one of the few towns in Scotland where visitors can hear the Gaelic language spoken on a daily basis. However the history of Lewis stretches back far beyond the Gaels – highlights of the islands include the spellbinding Callanish Stones -an ancient Neolithic stone circle and probable ritual site.

Day 4, St Kilda

Britain's remotest archipelago, St Kilda is Britain's only dual UNESCO World Heritage Site, inscribed for both its human and natural wonders. We drop anchor in the bay overlooking the Village – a unique settlement often compared to Macchu Picchu, entirely built from stone by the islanders who once called this island home. Windswept, rugged and difficult to farm, the locals of St Kilda left for less difficult lands in 1930, leaving the island to the vast colonies of seabirds and tiny ancient Soay sheep which were once the islanders' main source of food.

Day 5, Vágur, Faroe Islands

Vágur is the largest town of Suðuroy, the southernmost of the Faroe Islands. Treeless, windswept and rarely visited, the Faroe Islands were first discovered by Norse settlers around the year 750AD (although archaeological evidence hints at earlier settlement, perhaps from Scotland). Isolated from the rest of the Norse world, the Faroe Islands have retained a unique language and culture directly descended from the Ancient Norse.

Although Vágur is a modern town with several well known art galleries and workshops, the jaw-dropping clifftop vistas have remained the same since the age of Viking exploration.

Day 6, Tórshavn, Faroe Islands

The capital and largest city of the islands, 'Havn' as it is called by locals is the cultural and financial hub of the islands. The narrow winding streets of the city beg to be explored, and host highlights such as the National Gallery, the Tórshavn Cathedral. No visit is complete without a stroll around Tinganes, the artfully preserved old town, where turf-roofed buildings lead to the old parliament house which overlooks the harbour, reminiscent of famous Nyhavn in Copenhagen.

Days 7, At sea, en route to Iceland

As we cross the Norwegian Sea, join your Expedition Team either on deck to watch for the plethora of seabirds which reside in this region or in the Lecture Lounge to delve deeper into the history, culture and nature of your voyage. Alternately, book some pampering in our onboard spa and relax in Ocean Victory's hot tubs as we approach the coast of Iceland.

Day 8, Djúpivogur, Iceland

Situated on Iceland's scenic southeast coast, Djúpivogur is framed by fjords, mountains, and rich bird habitats. It is the closest port in the country to the Faroe Islands, Scandinavia, and mainland Europe, and is a popular port of call for vessels exploring the North Atlantic. Centered around the harbor, the town dates back to the 16th century and is known for its unique public art, including the Eggin í Gleðivík (Eggs of Merry Bay) sculpture. Hikers and birdwatchers are spoiled for choice, with mile upon mile of nature waiting to be explored. One of Iceland's most beautiful black sand beaches is just a short stroll from town and features a huge variety of bird species.

Day 9, Westman Islands, Iceland

Next, we visit Heimaey, the largest of the volcanic Westman Islands. Visitors can explore the dramatic lava fields of Eldfell volcano and the world-renowned bird colonies of the island. The residents of Heimaey were severely tested in 1973, when Eldfell volcano began to spew lava, threatening the town and its vital harbour. Heroic locals fought back, cooling the lava with seawater jets to save their community.

Day 10, Reykjavík, Iceland disembarkation

On the final day of our voyage, we arrive in Reykjavík, Iceland's vibrant capital. Famous for its modern Nordic culture, excellent food scene, and relaxed atmosphere, Reykjavík is the ideal starting point for adventures deeper into the Land of Ice and Fire, or a convenient place to begin the journey home, brimming with memories of your North Atlantic adventure.

From Svalbard we will sail towards Jan Mayen, an isolated island crowned by Mt Beerenburg, the world's northernmost volcano, where fulmars, kittiwakes and gulls throng the black volcanic cliffs. Ocean Albatros will then sail towards East Greenland, visiting the fascinating and friendly settlement of Ittoqqortoormiit before heading into Scoresbysund – Earth's largest fjord system. With vast glaciers, blooming tundra, and vast mountains rising straight out of the icy sea, Scoresbysund is undoubtedly one of the most spectacular locations anywhere in the Arctic. Days 5-6, At Sea, en Route to Jan Mayen

Departing Svalbard, Ocean Albatros heads southwest across the Greenland Sea towards Jan Mayen. Cold currents drifting down from the Arctic Ocean mix with the last gasp of the Gulf Stream, creating vast biological productivity. During sea days, guests can enjoy fascinating lectures, indulgent spa treatments, or simply relax and watch seabirds from the ship's hot tubs.

Day 7, Jan Mayen

The active volcanic island of Jan Mayen is on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, the 'spine' of the Atlantic Ocean. This enigmatic and isolated island is the only active volcano in Norway, and the northernmost active volcano on Earth. Jan Mayen is inhabited by only around 18 people, a mixture of scientists and Norwegian troops. The volcanic origin is visible all over with cinder cones, lava flows, and the Fuji-esque peak of Beerenberg looming above, while creeping tundra plants and squabbling seabirds eek out a living in the rugged cliffs.

Day 8, At sea, en route to Scoresbysund

From Jan Mayen, Ocean Albatros will sail on towards the coast of the largest island on Earth. The sea ice in East Greenland is some of the most persistent in the Arctic; even in midsummer, the coast can be icebound, creating the perfect habitat for ice-loving species such as polar bears and belugas. If we are lucky, we will catch a glimpse of this vast icy wilderness during our passage towards Scoresbysund.

Day 9, Ittoqqortoormiit

The only settlement in this region, Ittoqqortoormiit is among the most remote communities on Earth. While the establishment of the town by Danish authorities in 1925 was challenging, residents continue a subsistence hunting lifestyle, essential when supply ships arrive only once or twice per year. Wherever we visit in the depths of Scoresbysund, adventure is guaranteed!

Day 11, Blosseville Coast

The Ocean Albatros will sail south along Greenland's Blosseville Coast, a rugged landscape shaped by volcanic activity around 50 million years ago. First surveyed by explorer Ejnar Mikkelsen, this area has long been navigated by the Inuit. If conditions allow, we may land in this now-uninhabited region of breathtaking beauty.

Day 1, All aboard in Longyearbyen!

Arrive in Longyearbyen, Svalbard—the northernmost town on Earth. Despite its remote Arctic location, Longyearbyen offers warm Nordic hospitality. Upon arrival, you're greeted by crisp polar air, dramatic mountain views, and a polar bear warning sign reminding visitors of their wild new location. Your expedition ship Ocean Albatros awaits you in the harbor; toast your departure from civilization as you sail into the Arctic wilderness, on course for adventure!

Day 2, Kongsfjorden Area

During the Arctic "night," we sail past Prins Karls Forland to the stunning Kongsfjord, framed by glaciers and the dramatic Three Crowns mountains. The first stop is Ny-Ålesund, Earth's northernmost settlement, known for its scientific stations and historic role as a base for legendary polar explorers like Amundsen and Nansen. This remote outpost continues to support vital research amid its breathtaking surroundings.

Days 3–5, Expedition Northwest Svalbard

Northwest Svalbard, a National Park since 1973, preserves a rich history of early Arctic exploration and whaling. First visited by William Barents in 1596, the area became a hub for Dutch and English whalers, whose haunting remnants, such as the blubber ovens and graves of young sailors at Smeerenburg, remain visible. Now heavily protected, the region has been reclaimed by nature, hosting Arctic flowers, seabirds, walrus, and polar bears, making it once again a pristine wilderness and haven for wildlife.

Days 6–7, At Sea, En Route to Greenland

Departing Svalbard, Ocean Albatros will sail on towards the coast of the largest island on Earth. The sea ice in East Greenland is some of the most persistent in the Arctic; even in midsummer, the coast can be icebound, creating the perfect habitat for ice-loving species such as polar bears and belugas. If we are lucky, we will catch a glimpse of this vast icy wilderness during our passage towards Scoresbysund.

Day 8, Ittoqqortoormiit

The only settlement in this region, Ittoqqortoormiit is among the most remote communities on Earth. While the establishment of the town by Danish authorities in 1925 was challenging, residents continue a subsistence hunting lifestyle, essential when supply ships arrive only once or twice per year. Ittoqqortoormiit is a town with a strong sense of community and traditional culture, hosting an excellent museum, a beautiful traditional church, and locals often welcome visitors wearing colourful traditional costumes. Ittoqqortoormiit is the perfect introduction to the culture and lifestyle of Greenland.

Day 9, Expedition Scoresbysund

Venturing deep into the maze of fjords and islands that comprise Scoresbysund, it is easy to see why this region is spoken of with awe by even experienced explorers! The exact locations we visit in Scoresbysund will be dictated by Mother Nature – this far north, all human activity is subject to wind, sea, and ice conditions. Options include the Bjørne Islands, a labyrinth of skerries which trap vast icebergs in their rocky net, the sweeping basalt mountains of Cape Brewster, and the abandoned remains of European and Inuit settlements. Wherever we visit in the depths of Scoresbysund, adventure is guaranteed!

Day 10, Blosseville Coast

The Ocean Albatros will sail south along Greenland's Blosseville Coast, a rugged landscape shaped by volcanic activity around 50 million years ago. First surveyed by explorer Ejnar Mikkelsen, this area has long been navigated by the Inuit. If conditions allow, we may land in this now-uninhabited region of breathtaking beauty.

Day 11, At Sea, En Route to Reykjavik, Iceland

During our time at sea approaching Reykjavik, relax and reflect on your thrilling Arctic adventure. Attend final lectures from the Expedition Team, relive your adventure at the voyage slideshow, and celebrate your voyage with new friends at the Captain's Farewell Cocktail Party.

Day 12, Disembarkation in Reykjavik, Iceland

As the Icelandic capital comes into view on the horizon, strange objects appear; trees larger than ankle height, glassy skyscrapers and streets full of cars, busses and people... Such a bustling capital may feel strange after the remote wilderness of Greenland! After a hearty breakfast, it is time to bid a fond farewell to the Crew and Expedition Team of Ocean Albatros, and descend the gangway back to dry land with memories of the voyage of a lifetime.

Affectionately known as "Nuuk York" by locals, it stands as a singular blend of the ancient and the contemporary.

Day 5, Qassiarsuk and Itilleq Kujalleq

Next, we cruise through Tunulliarfik Fjord to Qassiarsuk, a lush village known for sheep farming and its rich Norse history. Founded in 1924, the modern village sits on the site of Erik the Red's 10th-century farm, Brattahlíð. Legend has it that his wife Thjodhild refused to join her pagan husband's bed until he built her a church – the first in the Americas. In the afternoon, we hike from nearby Itilleq through lush green fields to Igaliq and the ruins of Garðar bishopric, the seat of Norse Greenlandic power.

Day 6, Appilaattoq and Prins Christian Sund

Surrounded by breath-taking peaks, highlights include Thryms Glacier and the valley of Dronning Marie Dal. Weather permitting, we may land to explore ashore or Zodiac cruise by the majestic glacier.

Day 8, Sermilikfjord

Our next stop is the breathtaking Sermilikfjord – a vast ice-choked fjord which drains the colossal Helheim Glacier. Armadas of vast icebergs drift from the Greenland Ice Sheet out into the North Atlantic, creating one of the most spectacular natural sights on Earth. Join your Expedition Team on a Zodiac cruise and marvel at the gigantic icebergs, natural ice sculptures tens of thousands of years in the making!

Day 9, Ikateq and Kuummiit

During the morning, we approach Ikateq, also known as Bluie Two East – a haunting remnant of the American military presence on Greenland during the Second World War. Marvel at the remains of this vital airbase, untouched since it was abandoned in 1947. In the afternoon we reposition to Kuummiit – a small village deep in the calm waters of Ammassalik Fjord. Here we will have a chance to connect with the friendly locals and experience East Greenlandic culture in one of country's most beautiful and welcoming villages.

Day 10, Tasiilaq, East Greenland

Tasiilaq is East Greenland's largest settlement, sitting on rugged Ammassalik Island. Isolated from European contact until its founding as a trading post in 1894, it preserves the unique culture of the Tunumiit people. Once home to Greenland's last shamans, Tasiilaq is the origin of the tupilak, a feared magical creature – now a celebrated art form. Visitors can meet sled dogs (with owners' permission), experience drum dancing, hike tundra meadows, and visit the famous Stunk Artist's Workshop.

Day 1, All aboard in Reykjavik!

Hallgrímskirkja Church towers over Reykjavik, a vibrant city known for Nordic cuisine, unique museums, and lively shopping. After safety briefings, we set sail toward the wild coasts of East Greenland.

Day 2, At sea, crossing the Denmark Strait

The Denmark Strait, a narrow passage between Iceland and Greenland, teems with rich marine life. Our onboard experts guide guests in spotting wildlife as we cross these productive waters. Nearing Greenland, the team shares insights on ecology, geology, and wildlife, preparing guests for Zodiac operations and polar bear safety.

Day 3, Kuummiut and Ikateq, East Greenland

The day begins in Kuummiut, a picturesque and prosperous village nestled in the serene Ammassalik

Fjord. Roughly meaning "People who Live by the River," Kuummiut thrives on its rich fishing grounds and is home to East Greenland's only fish factory, drawing fishermen from across the local area. With no road access, the sea serves as its highway, and the village offers a glimpse into traditional East Greenlandic life, marked by sled dogs, motorboats, and the quiet rhythm of Inuit life. It's a peaceful setting to watch drifting icebergs and meet the locals to learn about their beautiful culture.

In the afternoon, the journey continues eastward to Ikateq, a fjord steeped in wartime history. During World War II, the U.S. military built a large airbase here—Bluie 2 East—as part of a transatlantic air route. Despite hazardous terrain and harsh weather, a full airfield, port, hangars, and supplies were established. When the base was abandoned in 1947, nearly everything was left behind. Decades of political debate between Nuuk, Copenhagen and Washington followed over the site's environmental impact, leading to a cleanup of hazardous materials. Today, Ikateq stands as a haunting and well-preserved relic of the wartime era, set amid Greenland's breathtaking natural landscape.

Day 4, Tasiilaq, East Greenland

Tasiilaq is East Greenland's largest settlement, sitting on rugged Ammassalik Island. Isolated from European contact until its founding as a trading post in 1894, it preserves the unique culture of the Tunumiit people. Once home to Greenland's last shamans, Tasiilaq is the origin of the tupilak, a feared magical creature – now a celebrated art form. Visitors can meet sled dogs (with owners' permission), experience drum dancing, hike tundra meadows, and visit the famous Stunk Artist's Workshop.

Day 5, At sea, en route to Ittoqqortoormiit

Keep your binoculars to hand as we sail along this remote rugged coastline; cold currents drifting down from the Arctic Ocean mix with the last gasp of the Gulf Stream along the East Greenlandic coast, creating vast biological productivity. As we sail these rich seas, guests can enjoy fascinating lectures, indulgent spa treatments, or simply relax and watch seabirds and other wildlife from the ship's hot tubs.

Day 6, Ittoqqortoormiit

The only settlement in this region, Ittoqqortoormiit is among the most remote communities on Earth. While the establishment of the town by Danish authorities in 1925 was challenging, residents continue a subsistence hunting lifestyle, essential when supply ships arrive only once or twice per year. Ittoqqortoormiit is a town with a strong sense of community and traditional culture, hosting an excellent museum, a beautiful traditional church, and locals often welcome visitors wearing colourful traditional costumes. Perfectly positioned at the fringes of the Northeast Greenland National Park, Ittoqqortoormiit represents the end of human civilisation, and the start of thousands of miles of pristine Arctic wilderness.

Days 7–9, Northeast Greenland National Park

As the ship sails past the rugged Liverpool Land peninsula, we enter the vast Northeast Greenland National Park — the world's largest protected land area, spanning nearly a million square kilometers and encompassing the northernmost land on Earth. Uninhabited today, the region was once home to nomadic Inuit hunters who thrived off its natural abundance until the mid-19th century.

Due to the extreme remoteness and unpredictable Arctic conditions, the itinerary within the park is flexible and dictated by weather, wind, sea, and ice. The Captain and Expedition Leader determine daily plans, which are announced the evening before. Potential highlights include Ella Island's dramatic 1300-meter cliffs at Bastionen, the historically significant Maria Island — site of a German WWII camp — and Blomsterbugten on Ymer Island, where visitors may enjoy views of the striking Teufelsschloss mountain and its vivid geological layers. Other possible destinations include the calving Waltershausen Glacier, the magnificent Moskusokse Fjord, and the wildlife hotspots of Jameson Land.

Throughout our time in the Park, your Expedition Team provides engaging lectures, friendly discussions, and onshore insights, while always scanning the landscape for Arctic wildlife. In this remote and pristine wilderness, guests are promised a journey rich in natural beauty, discovery, and adventure.

Day 10, Blosseville Coast

The Ocean Albatros will sail south along Greenland's Blosseville Coast, a rugged landscape shaped by volcanic activity around 50 million years ago. First surveyed by explorer Ejnar Mikkelsen, this area has long been navigated by the Inuit. If conditions allow, we may land in this now-uninhabited region of breathtaking beauty.

Day 11, Blosseville Coast

During our time at sea approaching Reykjavik, relax and reflect on your thrilling Arctic adventure. Attend final lectures from the Expedition Team, relive your adventure at the voyage slideshow, and celebrate your voyage with new friends at the Captain's Farewell Cocktail Party.

Day 12, Disembarkation in Reykjavik, Iceland

During our time at sea approaching Reykjavik, relax and reflect on your thrilling Arctic adventure. Attend final lectures from the Expedition Team, relive your adventure at the voyage slideshow, and celebrate your voyage with new friends at the Captain's Farewell Cocktail Party.
