Discover Antarctica, the Southern Ocean, and the Chilean Fjords

The Southern Ocean

The remote islands of the Southern Ocean are magical and wild places. In the Falklands Islands (Islas Malvinas), see peaceful bays rich in wildlife and learn about the daily life of the people who make this remote outpost of British culture home. In South Georgia, be amazed by sharp snowy peaks that jut out of the sea and take in some of the largest wildlife colonies in the world.

Antarctica

A land that holds 90% of Earth's ice, Antarctica stuns visitors with its awe-inspiring beauty. See peaceful bays dotted with colossal icebergs; cruise along deep fjords and see massive glaciers.

Chilean Fjords

In the Chilean Patagonia, one of the southernmost regions of the world, sail between massive blue-hued glaciers and the sharp peaks of the Andes mountains. This untamed terrain is home to fjords, channels, and islets with beaches teeming with marine wildlife, birds, and stunning natural landscapes best accessed by ship or Zodiac.

Adventure

Feel the spray of seawater on your cheeks as you cruise in a Zodiac to shore. Follow in the footsteps of early explorers as you explore on land with Antarctica21. Join our optional Sea Kayaking and Hiking & Snowshoeing programs.

Wildlife

Penguins, whales, seals, and seabirds congregate in the Southern Ocean during the austral summer. Present in large numbers, you will move along in their world, finding endless inspiration for photographs.

Memories

Setting foot on these distant lands is a privilege and an honor. You will bring home unforgettable tales, and your journey will arouse the curiosity and admiration, and create inspiring narratives that will be cherished and recounted for years to come.

Traveling on our Small Expedition Ships

Our Antarctic and sub-Antarctic sea voyages are high-end wilderness adventures, not just cruises. Your home away from home, our small ships allow you to explore remote and beautiful lands in comfort.

Small Ship Access

Feeling more like private yachts than cruise ships, our small expedition vessels give you privileged access to Antarctica and southern latitudes, taking you where larger ships cannot. With fewer passengers, disembarkation is fast and efficient, so you spend more time exploring, not waiting your turn to disembark and explore on Zodiac or on land.

Unparalleled Value

Your expedition will be led by an expert team of at least 12 polar guides. Our sea voyages have one of the highest staff-to-traveler ratios in the industry and offer an extensive list of trip inclusions for you to enjoy. Our rates start at only $6,495 USD per person, making these wilderness expeditions of extraordinary value.

KEY BENEFITS

 Size: Enjoy a small-ship, yacht-like experience

 Speed: Efficient disembarkation

 Value: The best value and the most affordable prices

Patagonia & Chilean Fjords

9 DAYS / 8 NIGHTS

Itinerary

Day 1 / Puerto Montt, Embarkation

Your journey begins in Puerto Montt, Chile, with boarding between 15:00 and 16:00 hrs. After all mandatory briefings, the ship sets sail towards the Gulf of Corcovado.

Day 2 / Puyuhuapi Channel

We continue south to visit the area around Puerto Aysen and Puyuhuapi in the Aysén region. As we cruise and explore the area, we see the landscape unfold with its many fjords, islands, and channels. We hope to visit either Puerto Cisnes, Puyuhuapi, or Magdalena Island, with the possibility to see dolphins, whales, cormorants, sea lions, and river otters.

Day 3 / San Rafael National Park

Today, the ship reaches the Chonos Archipelago. Heading towards the Moraleda Channel, the vessel cruises around the area of San Rafael National Park, a biosphere reserve, if weather permits. The park is the main entry point to Chile's Northern Patagonian Ice Field. We will also explore the surrounding fjords, channels, islands, and coves.

Day 4 / Day at Sea, Gulf of Penas

As we sail south, we cross the Gulf of Penas, enjoying beautiful views of the surrounding mountain ranges. The expedition team tells us about the indigenous inhabitants of these southern lands, the early Spanish colonizers, and famous explorers such as Charles Darwin, Fitz Roy, and Alberto de Agostini. We also learn about the region's biodiversity through presentations about the local marine fauna and flora.

Day 5 / Caleta Tortel and Messier Channel

If weather permits, a visit to Caleta Tortel or the surrounding region is planned for the morning. Located between the mouth of the Baker River and a small cove within the Baker Channel, Caleta Tortel is a small village consisting mainly of stilt houses, typical of Chilotan architecture, built along the coast for several kilometers. Wooden walkways are built with Guaitecas cypress, they connect houses and give the village its distinctive look and unique culture. We continue sailing south towards Messier Channel and navigate through the dramatic 18-meter-wide (59 feet) English Narrows for a privileged view of the glaciers of the Southern Patagonian Ice Field. Outside Antarctica, some of the largest glaciers in the southern hemisphere are found here.

Day 6 / Bernardo O'Higgins National Park

We embark on a Zodiac excursion to the Amalia Glacier area or the surrounding glaciers along the Peel Fjord in the Bernardo O'Higgins National Park. We bask in the glacier's icy-blue beauty and cruise across the sea and among its ice floes to uncover part of Chile's natural mystique. As we sail between snow-capped peaks to get a closer look at the glacier and its brilliant and rugged textures, we may spot dolphins swimming at a distance, cormorants or condors flying above, and otters.

Day 7 / Day at Sea, Strait of Magellan and Tierra del Fuego

While heading south along the Strait of Magellan, we explore the waters of the fjords that branch out from Tierra del Fuego. We follow the remote coast around the Francisco Coloane Marine Park, a protected area in the southern hemisphere where whales feed. If we are lucky, we may be able to spot humpback or sei whales breaching in the distance. We may also see dolphins, sea lions, seals, penguins, albatrosses, and petrels.

Day 8 / Beagle Channel & Garibaldi Fjord

The Beagle Channel is a striking narrow passage in the archipelago of Tierra del Fuego, a region originally named after the fires that burned in local native settlements when the first European explorers arrived. Dividing Chile and Argentina, the passage showcases ice formations along the snow-dusted Darwin Range. We will sail along Glacier Alley, home to the Holanda, Italia, Francia, Alemania, and Romanche glaciers, aiming to explore the Garibaldi Fjord.

Day 9 / Ushuaia Argentina, Disembarkation

Morning arrival in Ushuaia and disembarkation.

A Glimpse into Expedition Cruising

Nicolás Gildemeister
Director of Operation,
Expedition and Product Department

Nicolás Gildemeister, Director of Operation, Expedition and Product Department, shares four key aspects of Antarctica21's expedition cruising experience.

What makes expedition cruising a unique way of traveling?

Unlike traditional cruises focused on entertainment, expedition cruising is about adventure and education, generally to remote and challenging destinations. We have a clear objective – to create an intimate experience that connects our guests with each destination. These trips require smaller, specifically designed vessels with a unique balance of crew expertise and guest capacity. Antarctica21 offers boutique comfort and adaptability, coupled with a team of polar experts with specialized knowledge, setting it apart from conventional cruises.

Why is the experience on smaller ships crucial to the Antarctic journey?

The size of the ship is key. Smaller vessels offer greater flexibility and personalization, facilitating quick transfers, boardings, and disembarkations. Low passenger capacity and high guide-to-guest ratio enable spontaneous itinerary adjustments and unique wildlife encounters, ensuring a dynamic and tailored voyage that larger ships cannot match. If we know a pod of whales is nearby, we can change our route, adjusting our plans with ease. The Antarctic Treaty limits the number of guests ashore to a maximum of 100. Larger ships must therefore organize shore visits in groups, with guests taking turns. On the other hand, all guests on Antarctica21's small ships can disembark at once, maximizing their time ashore. There are other differences. For example, during meals, our polar experts sit with guests for one-on-one conversations, creating meaningful connections and delving deeper into any topic of interest.

How does Antarctica21 adapt its itineraries in response to the unpredictable Antarctic conditions while ensuring rich exploration opportunities?

Antarctica's ever-changing weather and challenging conditions require a flexible approach to itinerary planning. You cannot fight nature. Instead, you need to adapt with creativity. We have been organizing fly and cruise expeditions in Antarctica for more than 20 years, and we have extensive experience in navigating these changes, adapting plans swiftly and strategically, much like a game of chess. This adaptive strategy allows for a fulfilling exploration experience, prioritizing flexibility and the opportunity to witness the unique wonders of Antarctica up close.

How would you describe the guests' expedition experience?

At the heart of Antarctica21's expeditions lies the creation of a small community of explorers. We invite travelers not only to observe but to be active participants in this journey, adding their own chapter to the story of exploration. This shared adventure binds guests, expedition guides, and crew members in a mutual appreciation of each destination's majestic beauty, creating lasting memories and personal transformations.

Sea Kayaking

Experience Antarctica and the Chilean Patagonia from the unique vantage point of a sea kayak. The majestic landscape, the icebergs, and the wildlife presents a unique perspective as you paddle quietly through the icy waters.

The Program

The sea kayaking program is an optional small-group experience limited to a maximum of 20 participants per expedition who will go on excursions in two separate groups of 10 guests each, on an alternating basis. Each group of 10 guests enjoy 1-2 excursions throughout the voyage under the guidance and leadership of an experienced Kayak Master.

During your trip in Antarctica and Southern Patagonia, your Kayak Master will work with the Expedition Team to look for the best kayaking opportunities based on suitable and safe weather conditions. A dedicated safety Zodiac will support the group. Each kayaking excursion will be approximately one and a half hours. The Kayak Master will strive to offer some time at the landing site so you can also explore on land.

To take part in the kayaking program, you must have previous experience, know how to swim, and be able to communicate in English. The minimum age for participation is 15 years, and space is limited. We recommend booking the Sea Kayaking program upon reservation of your expedition.

For complete details, please review the "Sea Kayaking" document, which is available upon request.

Ocean Nova: $695 USD per person
Magellan Explorer: $895 USD per person
Book at the time of reservation

Note: Sea Kayaking is offered as a full program of 1-2 excursions delivered throughout the expedition to the same group of participants. It is not possible to join individual, one-off kayaking excursions or rotating participation among family members or groups of friends traveling together.

Payment of the sea kayaking participation fee is due at the time of reservation. In the case of cancellation 120 days or more prior to departure, Antarctica21 will refund 50% of the participation fee. In the case of cancellation 119 days or less prior to departure, there will be no refund.

Hiking & Snowshoeing in Antarctica

See more of the Antarctic landscape with our Hiking & Snowshoeing program. Excursion locations are selected for their scenic appeal and will provide unique vantage points for your photographs.

The Program

The Hiking & Snowshoeing program is an optional small-group experience offered on board the ship as a one-off excursion. A Hiking & Snowshoeing Guide leads the group.

During your trip in Antarctica, the Hiking & Snowshoeing Guide will work with the Expedition Leader to look for the best hiking or snowshoeing opportunities within the trip's schedule, based on suitable and safe weather conditions. Each excursion will be approximately one and a half hours in duration. Depending on the time of the year and the conditions of the terrain, some excursions may require the use of snowshoes and/or trekking poles, which Antarctica21 provides. November, December, and January, generally offer good snowshoeing opportunities. Snowshoes are usually not needed in February and March. Participants can select the excursions they want to join, paying a per-excursion fee. The activity can be booked and paid on board the ship.

To take part in the Hiking & Snowshoeing program, you do not need previous experience. However, your level of physical fitness should be good. The minimum age for participation is 15 years.

For complete details, please review the "Hiking & Snowshoeing in Antarctica" document, which is available upon request.

$85 USD per person, per excursion

Note: The Hiking & Snowshoeing program is offered only in Antarctica.

Life on Board

Sandra Walser, Lead Cruise Manager, talks about the experience aboard our expedition ships.

What is life like on an Antarctica21 ship?

The ship is our base, a welcoming place to return to after our excursions. Our goal is to make it feel like your home away from home. We deliver a boutique hospitality experience that is personal, comfortable, and flexible. You can enjoy the privacy of your cabin, or socialize in the lounge, find a space for quiet contemplation in the library, or you can join fellow travelers on deck. Our team interacts with guests throughout the journey, sharing their knowledge and keeping everyone briefed on the trip's progress.

How is the dining experience on board?

Onboard dining gives you a chance to get to know your travel companions and make new friends. With different sized tables and no pre-assigned seating, you can choose to sit privately or join a group; the choice is yours.

Our chefs care about flavor and detail. In the remoteness of Antarctica, they may surprise you with a fresh sprig of rosemary as decoration. All meals offer a variety of choices that appeal to many tastes, including several main courses and side dishes, salads, fruits, and pastries. Our waitstaff serves a full selection of drinks. Beers and premium Chilean wines are included with lunch and dinner. Depending on cruising conditions, a barbecue on deck may be offered.

How are Antarctica21's ships different?

At Antarctica21, we pride ourselves on offering expert and welcoming service on board all our ships. On each ship you can expect a similar expedition program and hospitality experience: briefings, presentations, social time in the lounge, access to the bridge, and daily cabin service are offered with the same standards of excellence. In all cabins we provide a reusable water bottle, refreshing bath products, chocolates at turn down, and more.

While there are many similarities in the onboard experience, there are also some differences in each ship's style and facilities. Magellan Explorer is a new vessel, with a modern design. Nearly all cabins have a private balcony: you can wrap yourself in a blanket and sip a warm beverage as you enjoy views of Antarctica in complete privacy. Ocean Nova offers an informal base for adventurous travelers. The ship's strong hull and excellent maneuverability provide an exceptional expedition experience at a more affordable price.

No matter which one of our small ships you choose for your Antarctica expedition, our goal is to ensure that you enjoy a friendly atmosphere, comfortable cabins, and common areas with knowledgeable and helpful staff.

Responsible Tourism in Antarctica & Sub-Antarctic Regions

© K. Parada

Antarctica21 is a small, independent, Chilean-owned, and managed company. When you travel with Antarctica21, you support specialized, small-scale tourism in Chile. Your travel investment with Antarctica21 creates employment in Chile and directly benefits the developing Chilean economy.

Our team is made up of specialized and passionate individuals who care deeply about Antarctica and the Southern Ocean. We handcraft each experience with love, working as a family and welcoming our expedition guests into that family.

Our team ensures that every Antarctica21 expedition is carried out in a sustainable, responsible way, according to the stringent requirements of the Antarctic Treaty and the rigorous guidelines of the International Association of Antarctica Tour Operators (IAATO), of which Antarctica21 is a full and active member.

Our Expedition Team will lead you on an inspiring and satisfying adventure while maintaining the integrity of each destination's unique environment and wildlife species.

RESPONSIBLE TRAVELER GUIDELINES

- There are no bathrooms available at landings in Antarctica. Make sure to use the facilities on board before excursions.
- Never disturb or feed wildlife on land or at sea, allow wildlife to instigate all interactions.
- Don't take souvenirs (for example rocks, feathers, bones, etc.)
- Don't leave anything behind. Take home everything you brought with you.
- Never walk on moss and lichens. It takes years to grow back.
- When ashore, keep at least 5 meters (15 feet) distance from all animals.
- While kayaking, keep at least 100 meters (328 feet) distance from whales and seals.
- Avoid blocking the 'walkways' between penguin colonies and their water entry and exit points.
- Use the provided facilities to decontaminate your boots and help protect the ecosystem from foreign bacteria or seeds.

RESPONSIBLE PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

Always respect animals when taking pictures. Your shot is important, but the wellbeing of wildlife must always take priority.

- Flash photography is not allowed; it might spook the animals.
- Read about Antarctic wildlife species and learn to read their behavior.
- If an animal appears distressed, stop taking photos and move away slowly and immediately.

Our Commitment to Sustainability

Antarctica21 is committed to leading sustainable travel in Antarctica, setting the highest standard in environmental protection, travelers' safety, and the promotion of science, education, and awareness about this unique ecosystem.

Our vision for 2030 is to be recognized as an exemplary model of responsible travel in Antarctica and Sub-Antarctica, providing unique and unforgettable experiences that inspire people from around the world to value and preserve this last wild and unexplored corner of our planet. Through continuous innovation, collaboration with the scientific community, and respect for wildlife and ecosystems, we are committed to ensuring that future generations can enjoy and learn from this iconic region just as we do today.

Our Ongoing Sustainability Efforts

Technological Innovation: Magellan Explorer is equipped with advanced technologies for the efficient use of resources, including a heat recovery system for the ship's heating and water supply, reducing waste and energy use. Additionally, Marorka's onboard software helps optimize the ship's fuel consumption and lower emissions by monitoring the use of engines and generators.

Carbon Offsetting: We purchase carbon credits in wind energy projects in Chile and Guatemala to offset emissions and support renewable energy production. Our certification process helps identify improvement areas, and while we currently offset emissions, our goal is to achieve net-zero emissions.

Environmental Protection: Being a member of the International Association of Antarctica Tour Operators (IAATO), and a CarbonNeutral® certified company, we prioritize every detail to minimize our impact on this delicate ecosystem. We have also partnered with Deloitte to establish a comprehensive sustainability strategy based on the environmental, social, and governance (ESG) framework.

Antarctica21's Sustainability Policy

At Antarctica21, we aim to foster a sustainable corporate culture focused on good governance and societal and environmental practices. The policy includes:

- Sustainable Business & Excellence
- Social & Scientific Impact
- Environmental Responsibility

Education Program

Antarctica21's education program, A21CONNECT, is an overarching concept where education, experience, and science converge.

Opportunities for understanding and gaining knowledge are weaved throughout your journey, with multiple touch points through this program.

Our expedition team offers engaging presentations on board the ship and interpretation in the field. Additionally, there are several one-on-one moments throughout your journey, where conversations with team members build upon the experiences of the day, leading to contextualized understanding. Thanks to the small-scale of our operation, those moments happen frequently: in the lounge, in the dining room, on deck, during a Zodiac cruise and on countless other opportunities. Finally, we offer interactive workshops where you can participate and learn: open discussions, photography workshops, citizen science programs that collect data in support of scientists around the world, and more. Through A21CONNECT, Antarctica, a distant and mysterious region, is revealed in action.

Did you know? If you added up our expedition team members' total time spent in the polar regions, it would amount to over a century!

Packing For Your Trip

Suggested Clothing

The average temperature in the Falkland Islands (Islas Malvinas) during the time of our visit is in the 5 - 10°C (40 - 50 °F) range. The average temperature in South Georgia and the Antarctic Peninsula area during the time of our visit is about 0°C (32°F), although sometimes it may feel a little lower because of the wind chill factor. For this reason, it is best to wear several layers of light, warm clothing. The suggested clothing for Antarctica and the sub-Antarctic regions is very similar to that recommended for skiing: thermal underwear, a couple of warm and wicking mid-layers, a windproof and waterproof jacket, plus pants as the outer layer. You will also need a hat, a scarf, waterproof and insulated gloves, and sunglasses with high UV protection. The pre-departure material provides further details. We also suggest packing comfortable clothes to wear on board, as well as rubber-soled shoes for walking around on the outside decks.

EXPEDITION JACKET

Our Signature Waterproof Expedition Jacket has been hand-selected for you as the perfect, technical outer shell for use on our Antarctic expeditions.

Designed for a wide range of outdoor activities, the Ghost Pro jacket by Ansilta® is compact and lightweight. This versatile garment is ideal when impermeability and breathability are needed. The jacket has a slim and minimalist design, providing a very comfortable fit. It is made with GORE-TEX® fabric combined with Gore C-KNIT Backer Technology, which improves breathability by up to 15% through a less bulky and more robust 3-layer construction.

Only available in the Antarctica21 Gear Shop at www.antarctica21.com

Note: Jacket model is subject to change. Please review model and price at the time of purchase.

Useful Tips

Waterproof Boots & Clothing

As most landings in Antarctica and the sub-Antarctic regions are "wet landings," the best footwear is knee-high waterproof boots. You will not need to carry them with you since Antarctica21 will provide you with a pair of thermal rubber boots.

We highly recommend that you pack waterproof outer layers to keep dry during Zodiac excursions and landings.

Face Protection

Good quality UV filtering sunglasses are essential. Glacier glasses have leather flaps at the sides to stop the light from passing through. Due to the high reflectance of UV radiation, you will also need good sunblock lotion for your face (protection factor 30 and above) and lip balm.

Photography

To see the wildlife, you should have a good pair of lightweight binoculars (the suggested magnification is 7x or 8x). If you are passionate about photography, do not forget a good zoom lens to shoot wildlife while avoiding close approaches. Also, take a good supply of memory cards and spare batteries with you since cold temperatures can reduce their life span. The recreational use of drones is not allowed during the expedition.

Visa Requirements

All travelers should check the entry requirements of the countries visited during their trip, based on their nationality. For trips that visit Argentina, Chile, and the UK, the requirements of these countries should be considered. Please note that a multiple-entry visa is required for our trips.

Dietary Information

Requests regarding diets must be made on the Participation Form you receive after your booking confirmation. This information will be passed along to our staff so they can accommodate your needs while on your voyage.

Antarctica21 App

Itinerary

Day 1 / Puerto Montt, Embarkation

Your journey begins in Puerto Montt, Chile, with boarding at the port between 15:00 and 16:00 hrs. After all mandatory briefings, the ship sets sail towards the Gulf of Corcovado.

Day 2 / Puyuhuapi Channel

We continue south to visit the area around Puerto Aysén and Puyuhuapi in the Aysén region. As we cruise and explore the area, we see the landscape unfold with its many fjords, islands, and channels. We hope to visit either Puerto Cisnes, Puyuhuapi, or Magdalena Island, with the possibility to see dolphins, whales, cormorants, sea lions, and river otters.

Day 3 / Moraleda Channel

The voyage continues with an expedition day in the Chonos Archipelago. Aiming towards the Moraleda Channel, we cruise around the area of San Rafael National Park, a Biosphere Reserve, if the weather allows. The park is the main entry point to Chile's Northern Icefields. Enjoy exploring the surrounding fjords, channels, islands, and coves.

Day 4 / Gulf of Penas & Caleta Tortel

As we sail south, we cross the Gulf of Penas, enjoying beautiful views of the surrounding mountain ranges. The expedition team tells us about the indigenous inhabitants of these southern lands, the early Spanish colonizers, and famous explorers such as Charles Darwin, Fitz Roy, and Alberto de Agostini. We also learn about the region's biodiversity through presentations about the local marine fauna and flora. If weather permits, a visit to Caleta Tortel or the surrounding region is planned for the afternoon. Located between the mouth of the Baker River and a small cove within the Baker Channel, Caleta Tortel is a small village consisting mainly of stilt houses, typical of Chilotan architecture, built along the coast for several kilometers. Wooden walkways are built with Guaitecas cypress; they connect houses and give the village its distinctive look and unique culture.

Day 5 / Messier Channel & Pio XI Glacier

We continue sailing south towards Messier Channel and navigate through the dramatic 18-meter-wide (59 feet) English Narrows for a privileged view of the glaciers of the Southern Patagonian Ice Field. In the afternoon we aim to visit Pio XI Glacier or another nearby glacier. Brüggen Glacier, also known as Pio XI Glacier named by Spanish explorers after a Pope, is the largest western outflow from the Southern Patagonian Ice Field. It is also the longest glacier in the southern hemisphere outside Antarctica.

Day 6 / Bernardo O'Higgins National Park

We embark on a Zodiac excursion to the El Brujo or Amalia Glacier or the surrounding glaciers along the Peel Fjord in the Bernardo O'Higgins National Park. We bask in the glacier's icy-blue beauty and cruise across the sea and among its ice floes to uncover part of Chile's natural mystique. As we sail between snow-capped peaks to get a closer look at the glacier and its brilliant and rugged textures, we may spot dolphins swimming at a distance, cormorants or condors flying above, and otters.

Day 7 / Day at Sea, Strait of Magellan and Tierra del Fuego

While heading south along the Strait of Magellan, we explore the waters of the fjords that branch out from Tierra del Fuego. We follow the remote coast around the Francisco Coloane Marine Park, a protected area in the southern hemisphere where whales feed. If we are lucky, we may be able to spot humpback or sei whales breaching in the distance. We may also see dolphins, sea lions, seals, penguins, albatrosses, and petrels.

Day 8 / Beagle Channel & Garibaldi Fjord

The Beagle Channel is a striking narrow passage in the archipelago of Tierra del Fuego, a region originally named after the fires that burned in local native settlements when the first European explorers arrived. Dividing Chile and Argentina, the passage showcases ice formations along the snow-dusted Darwin Range. We will sail along Glacier Alley, home to the Holanda, Italia, Francia, Alemania, and Romanche glaciers, aiming to explore the Garibaldi Fjord.

Day 9 / Ushuaia Argentina, Disembarkation

Sea Kayaking

Experience Antarctica and the Chilean Patagonia from the unique vantage point of a sea kayak. The majestic landscape, the icebergs, and the wildlife presents a unique perspective as you paddle quietly through the icy waters.

The Program

The sea kayaking program is an optional small-group experience limited to a maximum of 20 participants per expedition who will go on excursions in two separate groups of 10 guests each, on an alternating basis. Each group of 10 guests enjoy one or two excursions throughout the voyage under the guidance and leadership of an experienced Kayak Master.

During your trip in Antarctica and Southern Patagonia, your Kayak Master will work with the Expedition Team to look for the best kayaking opportunities based on suitable and safe weather conditions. A dedicated safety Zodiac will support the group. Each kayaking excursion will be approximately one and a half hours. The Kayak Master will strive to offer some time at the landing site so you can also explore on land.

To take part in the kayaking program, you must have previous experience, know how to swim, and be able to communicate in English. The minimum age for participation is 15 years, and space is limited. We recommend booking the Sea Kayaking program upon reservation of your expedition.

For complete details, please review the "Sea Kayaking" document, which is available upon request.

$995 USD per person per expedition
Book at the time of reservation

Note: Sea kayaking is offered as a dedicated program, providing 1-2 excursions during the expedition for the same group of participants. It is not possible to join individual, one-off kayaking excursions or rotating participation among family members or groups of friends traveling together.

Payment of the sea kayaking participation fee is due at the time of reservation. In the case of cancellation 120 days or more prior to departure, Antarctica21 will refund 50% of the participation fee. In the case of cancellation 119 days or less prior to departure, there will be no refund.

Hiking & Snowshoeing in Antarctica

See more of the Antarctic landscape with our Hiking & Snowshoeing program. Excursion locations are selected for their scenic appeal and will provide unique viewpoints for your photographs.

The Program

The Hiking & Snowshoeing program is an optional small-group experience offered on board the ship as a one-off excursion. A Hiking & Snowshoeing Guide leads the group.

During your trip in Antarctica, the Hiking & Snowshoeing Guide will work with the Expedition Leader to look for the best hiking or snowshoeing opportunities within the trip's schedule, based on suitable and safe weather conditions. Each excursion will be approximately one and a half hours in duration. Depending on the time of the year and the conditions of the terrain, some excursions may require the use of snowshoes and/or trekking poles, which Antarctica21 provides. November, December, and January, generally offer good snowshoeing opportunities. Snowshoes are usually not needed in February and March. Participants can select the excursions they want to join, paying a per-excursion fee. The activity can be booked and paid for on board the ship.

To take part in the Hiking & Snowshoeing program, you do not need previous experience. However, your level of physical fitness should be good. The minimum age for participation is 15 years.

Our Commitment to Sustainability

Antarctica21 is committed to leading sustainable travel in Antarctica, setting the highest standard in environmental protection, travelers' safety, and the promotion of science, education, and awareness about this unique ecosystem.

Our vision for 2030 is to be recognized as an exemplary model of responsible travel in Antarctica and Sub-Antarctica, providing unique and unforgettable experiences that inspire people from around the world to value and preserve this last wild and unexplored corner of our planet. Through continuous innovation, collaboration with the scientific community, and respect for wildlife and ecosystems, we are committed to ensuring that future generations can enjoy and learn from this iconic region just as we do today.

Our Ongoing Sustainability Efforts

Technological Innovation: Magellan Explorer and Magellan Discoverer are equipped with advanced technologies for the efficient use of resources, including a heat recovery system for the ship's heating and water supply, reducing waste and energy use. Additionally, Marorka's onboard software helps optimize the ship's fuel consumption and lower emissions by monitoring the use of engines and generators.

Carbon Offsetting: We purchase carbon credits in wind energy projects in Chile and Guatemala to offset emissions and support renewable energy production. Our certification process helps identify improvement areas, and while we currently offset emissions, our goal is to achieve net-zero emissions.

Environmental Protection: Being a member of the International Association of Antarctica Tour Operators (IAATO), and a CarbonNeutral® certified company, we prioritize every detail to minimize our impact on this delicate ecosystem. We have also partnered with Deloitte to establish a comprehensive sustainability strategy based on the environmental, social, and governance (ESG) framework.

Antarctica21's Sustainability Policy

At Antarctica21, we aim to foster a sustainable corporate culture focused on good governance and societal and environmental practices. The policy includes:

- Sustainable Business & Excellence
- Social & Scientific Impact
- Environmental Responsibility

Learn With A21CONNECT

An Antarctica21 program
where education, experience, and science converge.

Opportunities for understanding and gaining knowledge are weaved in throughout your journey, with multiple touch points through this program.

Our expedition team offers engaging presentations on board the ship and interpretation in the field. Additionally, there are several one-on-one moments throughout your journey, where conversations with team members build the day's experiences leading to contextualized understanding. Thanks to the small-scale of our operation, those moments happen frequently: in the lounge, in the dining room, on deck, during a Zodiac cruise, and on countless other opportunities. Finally, we offer interactive workshops where you can participate and learn: open discussions, photography workshops, citizen science programs that collect data in support of scientists around the world, and more. Through A21CONNECT, Antarctica, a distant and mysterious region, is revealed in action.

Did you know? If you added up our expedition team members' total time spent in the polar regions, it would amount to over a century!

The Antarctica21 Foundation was established in 2021 as a vehicle for participation in a variety of programs focused on Antarctica. The foundation undertakes activities in support of science, art, conservation, and education, thereby contributing to the creation of Antarctic knowledge and to the transfer of that knowledge to wide segments of society.

For every guest that travels with Antarctica21, the company donates $50 USD to support the foundation's projects.

Packing For Your Trip

Suggested Clothing

The average temperature in the Falkland Islands (Islas Malvinas) during the time of our visit is in the 5 – 10 °C (40 – 50 °F) range. The average temperature in South Georgia and the Antarctic Peninsula area during the time of our visit is about 0 °C (32 °F), although sometimes it may feel a little lower because of the wind chill factor. For this reason, it is best to wear several layers of light, warm clothing. The suggested clothing for Antarctica and the sub-Antarctic regions is very similar to that recommended for skiing: thermal underwear, a couple of warm and wicking mid-layers, a windproof and waterproof jacket, plus pants as the outer layer. You will also need a hat, a scarf, waterproof and insulated gloves, and sunglasses with high UV protection. The pre-departure material provides further details. We also suggest packing comfortable clothes to wear on board, as well as rubber-soled shoes for walking around on the outside decks.

EXPEDITION JACKET

Our signature waterproof expedition jacket has been hand-selected for you as the perfect, technical outer shell for use on our Antarctic air-cruises.

Crafted for offshore and coastal sailing, the Skagen Offshore Jacket is designed with input from professional sail racers for ultimate performance. It features HELLY TECH® Performance technology for weather protection, Cordura fabric for durability, and adjustable elements for a customized fit. Additional features include a neon yellow hood, fleece-lined collar, SOLAS reflective elements, and ocean-bound recycled materials sourced from regions vulnerable to plastic pollution.

Only available in the Antarctica21 Gear Shop at www.antarctica21.com/gearshop

Note: Jacket model is subject to change. Please review model and price at the time of purchase.

Useful Tips

Waterproof Boots & Clothing

As most landings in Antarctica and the sub-Antarctic regions are "wet landings," the best footwear is knee-high waterproof boots. You will not need to carry them with you since Antarctica21 will provide you with a pair of thermal rubber boots.

Make sure you pack waterproof outer layers to keep dry during Zodiac excursions and landings.

Face Protection

Good quality UV filtering sunglasses are essential. Glacier glasses have leather flaps at the sides to stop the light from passing through. Due to the high reflectance of UV radiation, you will also need good sunblock lotion for your face (protection factor 30 and above) and lip balm.

Photography

To see the wildlife, you should have a good pair of lightweight binoculars (the suggested magnification is 7× or 8×). If you are passionate about photography, do not forget a good zoom lens to shoot wildlife while avoiding close approaches. Also, take a good supply of memory cards and spare batteries with you since cold temperatures can reduce their life span. The recreational use of drones is not allowed during the expedition.

Visa Requirements

It is the traveler's responsibility to check the entry requirements of the countries visited during their trip, based on their nationality. For trips that visit Argentina, Chile, and the UK, the requirements of these countries should be considered. Please note that if you require a visa, it must be a multiple-entry visa to ensure compliance with travel requirements.

Dietary Information

Requests regarding diets must be made on the Participation Form you receive after your booking confirmation. This information will be passed along to our staff so they can accommodate your needs while on your voyage.

Important Trip Details

The Nature of Expedition Travel

Our expeditions are suitable for adventurous travelers who enjoy full mobility and reasonably good health. Expedition travel to Antarctica and the sub-Antarctic regions requires flexibility and adaptation to ever-changing circumstances.

Expedition Language

The official language of our expeditions is English. The voyage will take travelers to remote destinations where interaction with our polar guides is essential. In the interest of safety and for the enjoyment of the experience, we strongly recommend that travelers who do not understand English be accompanied by someone who does, such as a friend, a family member, or a Tour Leader.

Your Travel Companions

Antarctica21 offers its expeditions worldwide. Each year, we welcome travelers from over 40 different countries. They may travel alone, as a family, or as part of a group. While some of your traveling companions may speak different languages and have different customs, they will share your passion for adventure and interest in the natural world.

Participation Form

Participants are required to fill out and sign an online Participation Form and return it to Antarctica21 at least 90 days prior to departure.

Medical Insurance

It is mandatory that participants to be adequately covered by a travel insurance policy that covers aero-medical evacuation from any of the destinations included in your selected itinerary in the case of a medical emergency during the trips, including emergencies related to pre-existing health conditions.

Cancellation Insurance

Antarctica21 strongly urges participants to be adequately covered by trip cancellation and interruption insurance.

Itinerary

Every effort will be made to adhere to the planned program. However, with this type of adventurous travel, changes to the itinerary may occur due to severe and changeable weather. We need to emphasize the fact that weather conditions are unpredictable, and safety is always the paramount concern on any Antarctic voyage. For this reason, Antarctica21 reserves the right to change the itinerary described due to weather conditions or other factors beyond Antarctica21's control without consulting the participants.

Baggage

We recommend that clients avoid expensive designer luggage that is easily damaged. We also strongly recommend that clients take out a luggage insurance policy that covers the cost of repairs or replacement in case their luggage is damaged. Due to the nature of the expedition, and as stated in our Terms and Conditions of Sale, Antarctica21 cannot be responsible for any damage to a customer's luggage.

Note that at certain points during the expedition, you will be required to handle your own luggage.
